UPDATE FROM SAU #3

The meeting began with an introduction of the SAU #3 administration. Milan and Dummer Boards were updated on the following:

- Dealing with COVID
- AVEC met to discuss what can be worked on together
- School administrators and teachers working together is beneficial
- Michael Kelley gave an update on BMHS; School opening was hectic with teachers and staff being challenged. Sports are running on schedule. Kudos to staff
- CTE - 22 Gorham students, Preschool- 2 of the 3 sessions are full, and the LNA program is scheduled for internships.
- Sandy Pouliot informed the boards that they are working with the PBIS team to get students re-engaged and re-oriented to school procedures at BES.
- Martha Miller stated staff are working together to get students what they need with paraprofessional support and are also working with SAU #20 on this issue.
- David Backler is excited about the collaboration, work study habits, and the nice tie between the communities.
- Andrew Mullins stated that education is a hard job and appreciates the efforts made by staff
- Matthew Buteau feels collaboration between the districts is very beneficial as a parent and a Board member.

AVEC UPDATE

- Summer Retreat in August
- The Joint Cycling Club had 30 members; it was great to see the numbers were up at the Middle School level and the team received new jerseys. Benefits are huge, especially at this time.
- Communication is very important.

ADJOURN

The meeting was adjourned at 6:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Secretary, Berlin Board of Education
