I HEREBY AUTHORIZE any physician, health care provider, health plan, medical professional, hospital, clinic, laboratory, pharmacy benefit manager, or other medical or health care facility that has provided payment, treatment, or services to me or on my behalf to disclose my entire medical record and any other protected health information concerning me to the Claims Department of Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada ("the Company"), its subsidiaries, affiliates, third party administrators, and reinsurers.

I understand that such information may include records relating to my physical or mental condition, such as diagnostic tests, physical examination notes, and treatment histories, which may include information regarding the diagnosis and treatment of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection, sexually transmitted diseases, mental illness, and the use of alcohol, drugs, and tobacco, but shall not include psychotherapy notes.

By my signature below, I acknowledge that any agreements I have made to restrict my protected health information do not apply to this authorization, and I instruct any physician, health care professional, hospital, clinic, medical facility, or other health care provider to release and disclose my entire medical record without restriction.

I understand that the Company will use the information it obtains to (a) administer claims; (b) determine or fulfill responsibility for coverage and provision of benefits; (c) administer coverage; and/or (d) conduct other legally permissible activities that relate to any coverage I have or have applied for with the Company.

I understand that the Company will not disclose information it obtains about me except as authorized by this authorization; as may be required or permitted by law; or as I may further authorize. I understand that if information is re-disclosed as permitted by this authorization, it may no longer be protected by applicable federal privacy law.

The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of employees or their family members, except as specifically allowed by this law. In order to comply with this law, we are asking that you not provide any genetic information when responding to this request for medical information. 'Genetic information,' as defined by GINA, includes an individual's family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual's family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services.

I understand that: (a) this Authorization shall be valid for 24 months from the date I sign it; (b) I may revoke it at any time by providing written notice to Sun Life Financial, Group Short Term Disability Claims, SC4312, One Sun Life Executive Park, Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts, 02481, subject to the rights of any person who acted in reliance on it prior to receiving notice of its revocation; and (c) my authorized representative and I are entitled to receive a copy of the authorization upon request.

A copy of this authorization shall be as valid as the original.

This notice explains why Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada (“the Company”) collects personal information about you, how we use that information, and under what circumstances we disclose it to others.

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

We need to obtain information about you to determine whether we can provide the insurance benefits you have requested. As part of the claims process, we may ask you to undergo a physical examination, submit a statement from your physician, or provide copies of medical tests or other information relating to your health, finances, and activities.

We also may collect information about you from other sources. By signing the authorization for release and disclosure of health-related information and/or the authorization for release and disclosure of psychotherapy notes, you authorize us to obtain medical information about you that we need to underwrite your application. Depending on your particular circumstances, we may collect additional information about you from the following sources:

- physicians, health care providers, medical professionals, hospitals, clinics, or other medical or health-care-related facilities
- other insurance companies you have applied to for insurance
- public records, such as Social Security and tax records

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

When you sign the authorization for release and disclosure of health-related information and/or the authorization for release and disclosure of psychotherapy notes, you authorize us to disclose information we have about you:

- to our reinsurers and
- as required or permitted by law.

In the course of the claims process, we may need to disclose information about you to others. The law permits us to disclose such information, without obtaining authorization from you, to:

- companies that help us conduct our business or perform services on our behalf,
- your physician or treating medical professional, and
- comply with federal, state or local laws, respond to a subpoena or comply with an injury by a government agency or regulator.

ACCESS, CORRECTION, AND AMENDMENT OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Upon written request to the Company, you can:

- obtain a copy of the personal recorded information we have about you in our files (a fee may be charged to cover the cost of providing a copy of such information),
- request that we correct, amend, or delete any recorded personal information about you in our possession, and
- file your own statement of facts if you believe that the recorded personal information we have about you is incorrect.
